

Current WEMO vehicle

Emergency Management Southland is upping its visibility in the community with the first of three sign-written cars being delivered last month. Emergency Management Advisor, Gary Tong pictured in the driving seat, says he's taken a bit of a ribbing about the eye-catching paint job, but it's definitely increased public awareness of CDEM activity.

Always looking for new and innovative ways of doing things, Napier Civil Defence spread the Get Ready Get Thru message a little differently this year.

Auckland Civil Defence's 'What's The Plan Stan' float on Queen Street, during the 2011 Farmers Santa Parade.