1. Recent NZ Household Interview Surveys

1.1 Introduction

TDG have been tasked by Wellington Regional Council to compare the MoT, Wellington, Auckland, and Waikato Household Travel Surveys (HTS) in order to prepare a set of questions that will form the basis of the next round of surveys in Wellington, Auckland, Waikato, and possibly Christchurch. The intention is to supplement the new MoT surveys with additional samples in the main centres.

From this analysis, this report postulates a new set of questions that could be used nationwide and in discussion with WRC and MoT, form the basis of the new MoT HTS.

The deliverables were to be a short report covering the data collected in each HTS, a comparison of key differences, and a recommended minimum common set of questions that will meet the requirements of the Regional Authorities (WRC in particular) and also those of the MoT, while recognising that the MoT has a wider remit than that of the Regional Councils.

1.2 The Surveys

In recent years, Home Interview Surveys have been undertaken in:

- Wellington 2001
- Auckland 2006
- Christchurch 2007
- Waikato 2008
- Dunedin 2014
- MoT rolling surveys (to 2014)

This review looks at the questions asked in Auckland, Wellington, Waikato and the MoT surveys. Wellington, Auckland and the MoT used traditional paper based survey methods, while the Waikato survey used computer aided interview technology, meaning that there were a minimum of survey forms and the data collected in Waikato has been taken from the final dataset and coding frames.

The Wellington and Auckland surveys were very similar in form and content, and the survey forms used were also similar, although they were carried out by different firms.

The MoT surveys have been carried out for many years, and at one stage Opus were contracted to collect the data. They used computer aided interviews. When their contract ended in 2008, they won the contract to collect the Waikato data. They used the same data collection software, and the Waikato questions are very similar to the MoT questions, although some questions were omitted.

Since the Opus contract ended, Research International have been collecting the MoT data, using computer aided interviews, but with the questions well documented on paper. Their forms have been used in this comparison.

Each survey also included several specific questions which were of interest to general transport planning, but were not necessarily relevant to calibration of transport models

A summary of the questions used in each survey is included as Appendix A.

The Wellington, Auckland and MoT survey forms are included as Appendix B.

The Waikato data fields are included as Appendix C. The questions to obtain that data can be inferred from the MoT forms.

2. Recommended Questions

2.1 General

There are several basic points to bear in mind when designing a household travel survey. In general:

- The sample should be drawn randomly from the households within a model area. That has occurred for the Wellington, Auckland and Waikato surveys, but the MoT chose meshblocks at random throughout the country, and then sampled from within those meshblocks. In subsequent years, additional households were surveyed from the same meshblocks until all households in the meshblock had been surveyed, at which time a new meshblock was chosen. This method prevents a household from being surveyed more than once, but if the MoT survey is to be supplemented in other urban areas then a more random sampling process will be needed.
- The number of questions should be kept to a minimum. Only essential questions should be asked. For example, a question that how many kilometres driven in a lifetime is of little use to a model builder.
- Only questions that have a factual response should be asked.
- The survey day should start at 4:00am.
- It should not be assumed that the first trip of the day begins at home

The questions below are stated generally, but will be made more specific as coding frames are developed. Questions in bold italics are not currently included in the MoT Research International survey forms.

2.2 Questions Relating to the Household

The questions and data related to the household:

- 1. Household address
- 2. The survey day and date
- 3. Household type (eg. single person, couple, family with children, family adults only)
- 4. Number of people living in the household including visitors who are staying long term
- 5. Some form of identification of each person (generally the first name) to relate to the person questions in 2.3
- 6. The number of vehicles available to household members
- 7. The number of bikes in working order at the household (optional)

2.3 Questions Relating To People

Questions for each person in the household:

- 1. Name
- 2. Age
- 3. Gender
- 4. Currently a student (eg. full, part, primary, secondary, tertiary)
- 5. If a student, address of the school/university (optional)
- 6. Employment status (eg. self-employed, full, part, casual, unemployed, working at home, homemaker, retired)
- 7. Professional driver (don't collect work related trips)
- 8. What kind of work do you do
- 9. ANZSIC classification of the industry that you work in
- 10. Were any trips made on the survey day. If not, record why. If yes, collect the trip related data outlined in 2.5.

2.4 Questions Relating To Motor Vehicles

Each vehicle needs to be uniquely identified. One of the logic checks is to ensure that if a vehicle leaves home, then it returns back to the home unless there a specific reasons why not. Data typically recorded includes:

- 1. Make
- 2. Model
- 3. Plate number or year (to uniquely identify the vehicle)
- 4. Body type (includes motorcycles)
- 5. Who owns the vehicle
- 6. Who pays for the running costs
- 7. Was the vehicle available for use on the survey day

2.5 Trip Data

The trip data is arguably the most important part of the survey, and the most difficult to collect accurately. People have a tendency to forget even when they have been given a memory jogger to fill in. Short trips in particular are easily forgotten, such as leaving the office to buy lunch for example.

Data required is:

- 1. Where were you at 4:00am detailed address
- 2. What time did you leave that address
- 3. Where did you go
- 4. What time did you arrive there
- 5. How did you travel
- 6. Why did you go to the destination (eg. work, school, shopping, home, change mode, serve passenger)
- 7. What sort of place is it (eg. shop, residence, office, bus stop, station)¹
- 8. If car driver:
 - (i) which vehicle did you use
 - (ii) where did you park
 - (iii) what parking fee did you personally pay
- 9. If public transport:
 - (i) what was the fare
 - (ii) what fare type did you pay

Repeat questions 2-9 until the end of all trips in a day up to 4:00am the next day.

¹ The MoT survey has a combination of these two questions as one question
